STORIES FROM CURRENT STUDENTS IN THE HUMANITIES TALENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

From watching Shakespeare in the Park on a picnic mat with my classmates and Literature teacher to interacting with the First Secretary of the Embassy of the Republic of Singapore in Tokyo, I am thankful for the opportunity to see clearly the relevance of the subjects I learn to our lives. Even small things like conversations with my teachers and classmates have genuinely grown my love for learning, and interacting with like-minded and passionate individuals is extremely energising.

- Clarabelle Tan Shih Jieh, Class of 2024

My teachers inspire personal growth, constantly challenging us to go beyond in our critical thinking. The opportunities for learning are endless, with learning journeys and overseas trips that create a classroom without walls. Being in HSP broadened my understanding of what it means to value-add, to love God, and to love people.

- Ian Lim Rae Jed, Class of 2024

The programme provided me with a like-minded community of peers passionate about the Humanities, holistic experiences that are inter-disciplinary such as sitting in for a Singapore parliamentary debate which deepened my understanding of real-life applications and the relevance of the subjects I study. With a conducive environment to learn and challenge myself, classes and teachers always push me to think beyond the syllabus and classroom.

- Shana Lam Kai Xin, Class of 2024

"The Humanities teach us who we are and what we can be." - Ronald Reagan. The numerous enrichment opportunities deepened my grasp of various fields such as History and Literature, expanding exploration of my interests and conviction that words and ideas are powerful enough to transform the world! The robust learning environment cultivated by my engaging teachers and open-minded classmates engendered fruitful and spirited debate, helping us develop ideas for the betterment of society.
